

GERMAN-ISRAELI EXPERT MEETING EMPOWERING WOMEN FOR A BETTER YOUTH WORK

Application:

<https://bit.ly/3tandEJ>

Contact

Michaela Jacobs Coordinator for International Youth Work
m.jacobs@haus-ammaiberg.de
+49 (0) 62529306-30

Mara List-Avner
maralist@givathaviva.org.il
+972-54-6712244

Venue

Haus am Maiberg
Ernst-Ludwig Str. 19
64646 Heppenheim

Haus Michel
Siegfriedstraße 1
64646 Heppenheim

Costs

Incl. travel costs, room and board, transportation and admission fees during the project.

80 € Double Room
150 € Single Room

This project is funded by:

German-Israeli Expert Meeting
08.05.22 - 13.05.22
Heppenheim/Germany

With theoretical input, excursions, practice-oriented methods and the active involvement of the participants, the following subject areas are dealt with

- Engaging participants in a reflection process about themselves and their roles as women in society and in their professional lives
- Foster resilience and ambiguity tolerance of the participants
- Equipping participants with creative tools and methods to empower young females in their youth work
- Experience best practice examples of empowerment work with women and girls
- Gain different perspectives on the topic of female empowerment in Germany and Israel

Target Group: Women* active in youth work, currently residing in Germany or Israel, sufficient knowledge of the English language*
*(There will be no english native speakers in the meeting, you just need to be able to express yourself)

Facilitators:

Michaela Jacobs: works as Coordinator for International Youth Work in Haus am Maiberg since 2015. She has organized multiple bi- and multinational Youth Encounters as well as Specialist Meetings. She is trainer in diversity-conscious education as well as a certified Betzavta trainer.

Angela Khosla-Baryalei: works in the Hessian Ministry of Education's project "Preventing Violence and Learning Democracy" (GuD), migration social worker, teacher, diversity trainer (EWDV Berlin), trainer in the areas of diversity-conscious educational and cultural work / participation, migration and criticism of racism.

Mara List-Avner: Works in Givat Haviva - The center of the Shared society in Israel. Educator, group facilitator, historian and informatics specialist. Coordinates and organizes international youth exchanges (Israeli-Palestinian-German-Polish) since 2000. Peace activist, worked for many years in the Democratic Education System and Peace NGO's in Israel.