

Meeting for Matching & Cooperating

Bilateral work meeting for Kom-Mit-Nadev - German-Israeli Volunteer Program for Young Israelis in Germany November 11 - 13, 2014 in Berlin

The German-Israel Volunteer Program Kom-Mit-Nadev has started into its fifth year. About 70 young Israelis have so far been or are still working as volunteers in projects within German civil society. After the intensive pilot phase, a number of lasting cooperations have been established to send and welcome Israeli volunteers in Germany. Other cooperations took a break or postponed their start for different reasons. Anyhow – with the beginning of September 2014 once again 12 young Israelis started their volunteer service in different projects and cities in Germany.

As usual in autumn time we wish to take the chance to get together with all involved sending and hosting organizations, as well as new interested organizations in order to communicate our experiences and plans for the current and the upcoming volunteer year 2015-2016:

- Which observations, impressions and experiences of sending and hosting the Israeli volunteers in the turn 2013-2014 can we report?
- Which ideas and conclusions can we draw for the educational guidance of the volunteers after reflecting last years' impressions?
- How are we going to continue our existing cooperations or can we think of new cooperations regarding partners, placements and the advertisement of the program?

We would like to invite you to this years' work meeting in Berlin and are looking forward, as always, to widen and enhance the range of cooperations and plans – including creating new matchings for the volunteer-year 2015-2016!
