

„Everybody can be a change agent.“ Program Junior-Team

July 2-6, 2012

In cooperation with our Israeli partner, Israel Youth Exchange Council, ConAct is planning on establishing a Junior-Team for the German-Israeli youth exchange. We want to invite young people (approximately aged between 18 and 30 years) from Germany and Israel and give you the opportunity to contribute your own perspective to the work of the German-Israeli Youth Contacts. This may happen in different ways, whether through

- support of events of ConAct and further partner organizations and project advice from a young point of view s
- development of own ideas d
- and initiation of projects a

In this way an active network of young Germans and Israelis shall develop, which contributes to projects, meets on a regular basis and works together on a longer run.
